1. While fishing in the Gulf of Finland between 14 and 19 June 1954, a group of Polish fishing vessels brought up a naval mine off Tallinn, about 12 miles from the coast.
2. Soviet naval minesweepers, which were summoned by radio, ordered the Polish vessels to leave the area immediately.
3. The Polish vessels were escorted from the area by a Soviet minesweeper and a Soviet aircraft flew overhead until the fishing craft had reached the open sea.
